PHOENIX
1981

Live for today . . .

Today, 1980-81 is the year:

Reagan is coming in and Carter is going out. Carpenter is coming in and Koontz is going out . . .

Everyone is wearing "preppie" styles . . . monogrammed sweaters, penny loafers, buttoned-down collars, and Izod alligator shirts . . .

Finding out who shot J.R. and watching Luke and Laura on General Hospital . . .

Waiting for our hostages to come home and getting two new coaches for the girls' varsity basketball team . . .

Having a winning season for the volleyball team and getting a field house with new equipment to go in it . . .

Wendy and Chris becoming our school mascots and getting a new activity bus and gym lobby . . .

Losing four of America's celebrities: Steve McQueen, Mae West, Peter Sellers, and John Lennon, former member of the Beatles, and gaining two great movies, Caddyshack and Airplane, and a top song of the year "Another One Bites the Dust" . . .

From "Biting the Dust" to just being us, D.H.S. is living for today . . .

Hope for tomorrow . . .

Hope for tomorrow . . .

Could an average house possibly cost over one million dollars in ten years?

Once we get to the college of our dreams, will we be able to make it through four years?

Will the price of gas go down, or continue to steadily rise?

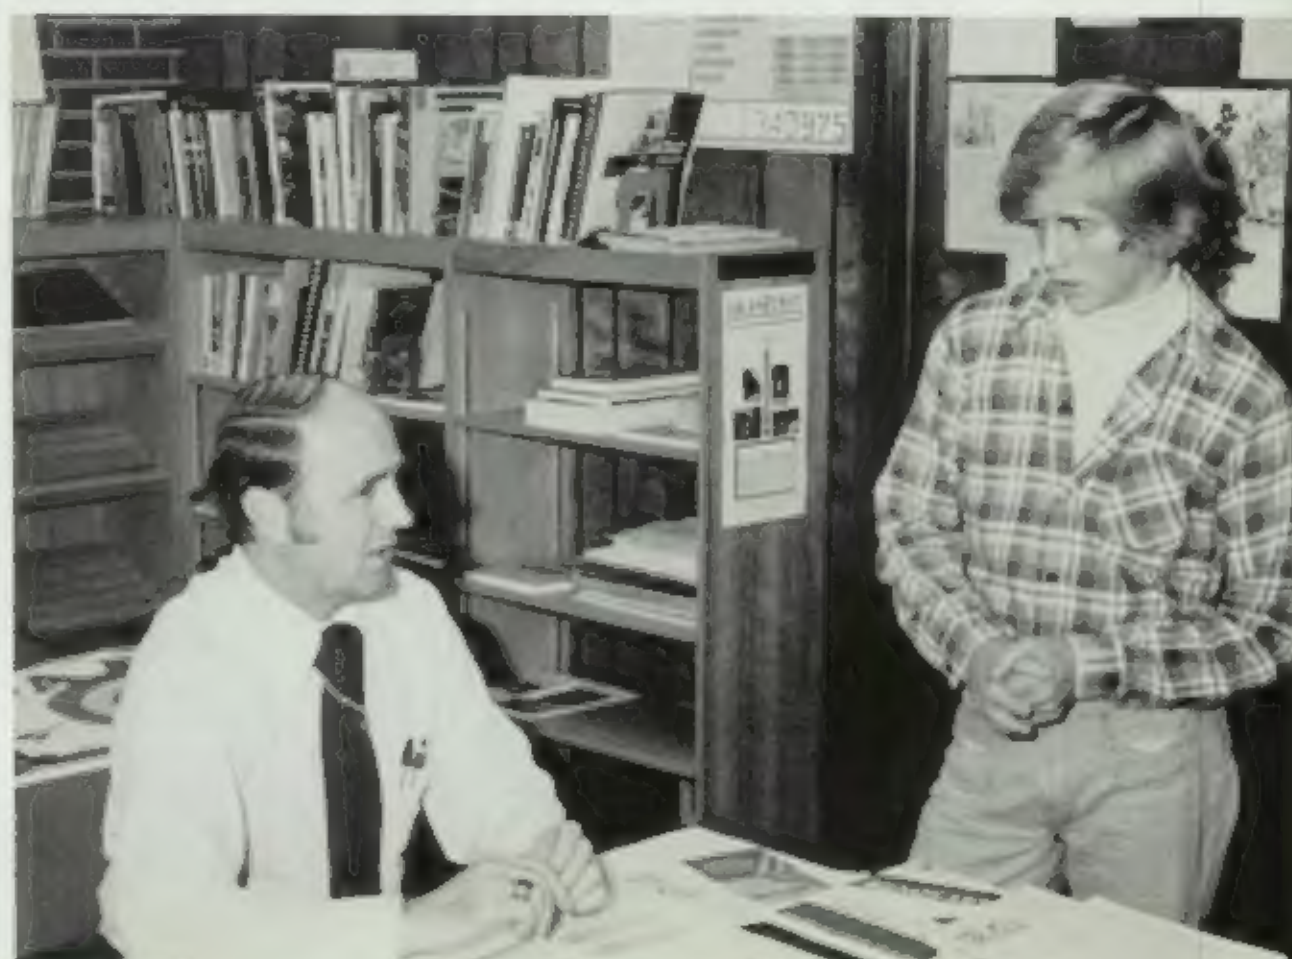

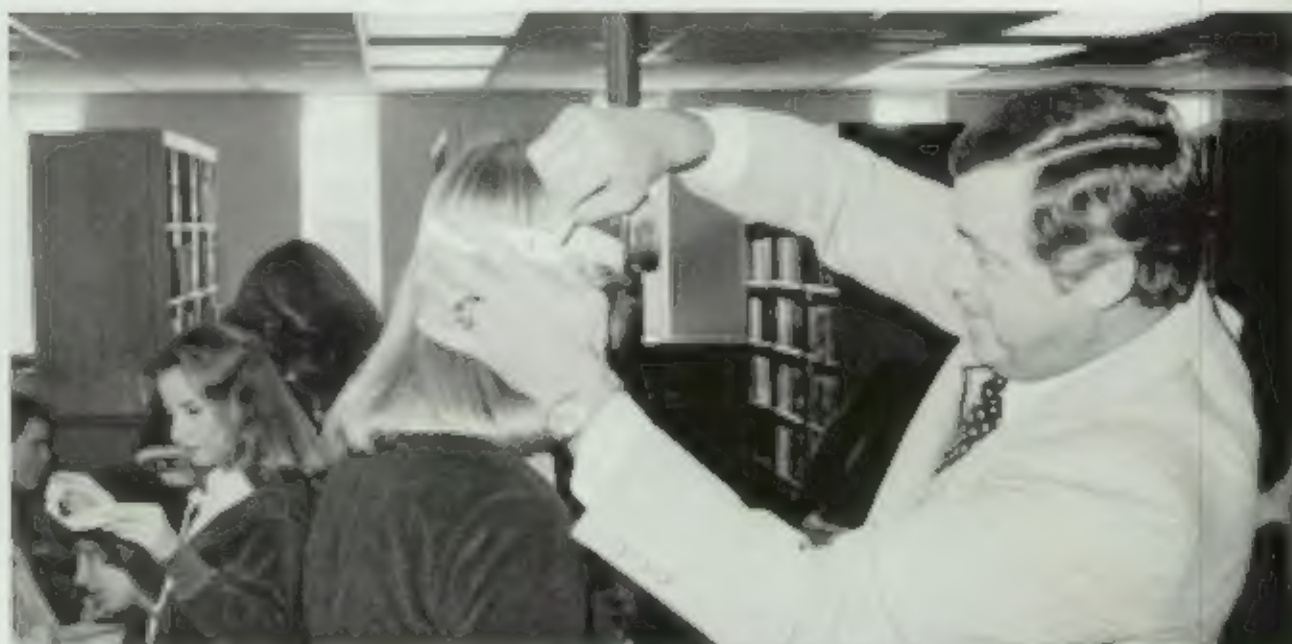

The hostages in Iran . . . will they return home safely?

Will robots eventually take over?

Where will our children and grandchildren go to school? Will Denton still be here . . . ?

Although we need to hope for tomorrow, we still need to think about today, because our success or failure tomorrow, depends on our success or failure today

But Never Forget Yesterday . . .

Remember . . .

Your first grade year-how scared you were . . . Girls with pigtails and ribbons-Guys with G.I.'s or straight bangs.

Playing kick ball with friends and school plays-how you hated those costumes.

Field days in the past-how proud you won a ribbon.

Things you made with construction paper and glue, finger-paintings your teacher hung on the wall.

In junior high, class trips and the crazy pranks you pulled.

The cafeteria strike and the time the furnace almost blew up!

Starting over again-this time as a freshman.

The Junior-Senior prom-bringing mixed feelings and togetherness to the class.

Florida-trying to sleep on the way down, going to Disneyworld, getting caught in the rain, and the encounter with the security guard on the last night.

The activity bus breaking down on the way to Chatham Central, never making it to the game, and being towed back to Asheboro by a wrecker.

The friends you've made and the good times you've had each year. Special friends you will never forget whether they are here or gone-and special memories that you will hold forever

Dedication

When we, the Seniors of '81 were asked to choose the dedication for our annual, one person immediately came to our minds. This person has been with us for four years and we tease him about being a Senior, also.

He got an apartment in Denton a couple of years ago and students visit him occasionally. While there, he serenades them by playing the guitar and singing (if you can call it that). He went to Florida with us this past summer as a chaperone and some of us believed that he was the one that needed chaperoning.

With a super-crazy attitude, he conducts class in a semi-relaxed atmosphere. He mixes fun in with work and enjoys seeing people suffer in his class. Jokes, picking, and calling people by their last name characterize him.

He coaches Golf, Junior Varsity Basketball, Volleyball and is an assistant for Football. He led the Volleyball team to a winning season for the first time in years and made them believe in themselves.

Over the past few years he has acquired a variety of nicknames including: "Wally", "Big Daddy Wall", "Mr. Bill" and others we shouldn't mention. It is to this man, whom the Seniors really love that we dedicate the Phoenix 1981-Mr. Bill Wall.

*Mr. & Miss Red Raider
Anne Carter and Greg Garner*

This year, the faculty selected Greg Garner and Anne Carter as Mr. and Miss Red Raider. Both students hold high academic averages, participate in various school activities, and always show a desire to cooperate with anyone at all times. Both Anne and Greg have decided to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill after graduation. Anne hopes to major in secondary education while Greg wants to start a career in medicine. Being chosen for Mr. and Miss Red Raider is a big honor and D.H.S. salutes these two fine students for always trying to do the best that they can at all times.

Wendy Carroll was selected to represent Denton High School as the D.A.R. Good Citizen. On December 6, Wendy traveled to Elkin, N.C. to the District Rally for the announcement of the winner. She was required to write an essay on "My American Heritage." When asked what the award meant to her, she said, "a great deal, because I have learned so much from it."

Anne Carter and Shawn Garner were selected to attend the 1980 session of Girls State from June 8 through the 14th. It was a very busy week for them—full of lectures, and city and party meetings. They learned much about how government works at the city and state levels. Although it was a hectic week, the girls made many new friends and felt that the week was very worthwhile.

Representatives

Girls State

On November 11, the Miss Veteran's Day Pageant was held in Lexington with Donella Carroll and Anne Carter as the representatives from Denton. The pageant was held in the auditorium of Lexington Senior High and afterwards all contestants took part in the Veteran's Day Parade which moved through the cold windy streets of Lexington.

Sara Petty was chosen by the senior class to represent Denton High in the Miss Davidson County Pageant which was held at the County Fair in Lexington in September. She competed with other girls from other high schools in the county, and was judged on poise and appearance, as well as a personal interview.

Carolina Carrousel

The Carolina's Carrousel Pageant was held on November 26, and Alecia Adams was Denton's representative. She left on Tuesday, the 25th, and stayed until Thursday, the 27th. During her stay, she competed with 39 other girls in Interview and Evening Gown. She also rode in the annual Thanksgiving Day Parade and appeared on Channel 2 television. Although she did not place in the actual competition, she thoroughly enjoyed the chance to meet so many people.

On November 29, Donna Snyder, contestant number 11, was crowned Miss Denton 1981 out of five finalists. When asked about the year to come, Donna said, "I am looking forward to my reign and I hope that I can represent the town of Denton as well as Alecia did last year."

Homecoming-October 17, 1980

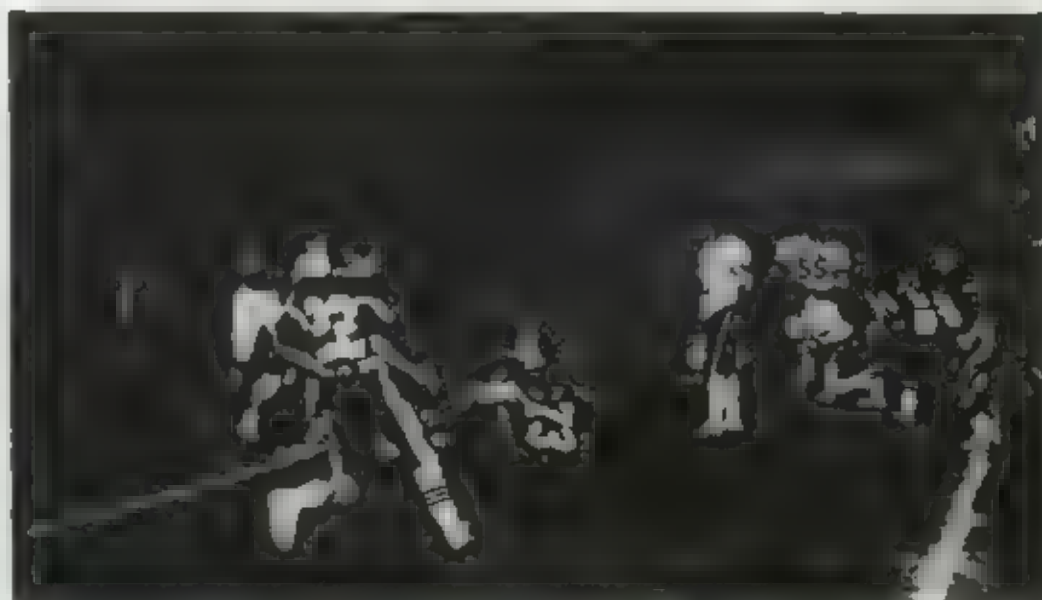

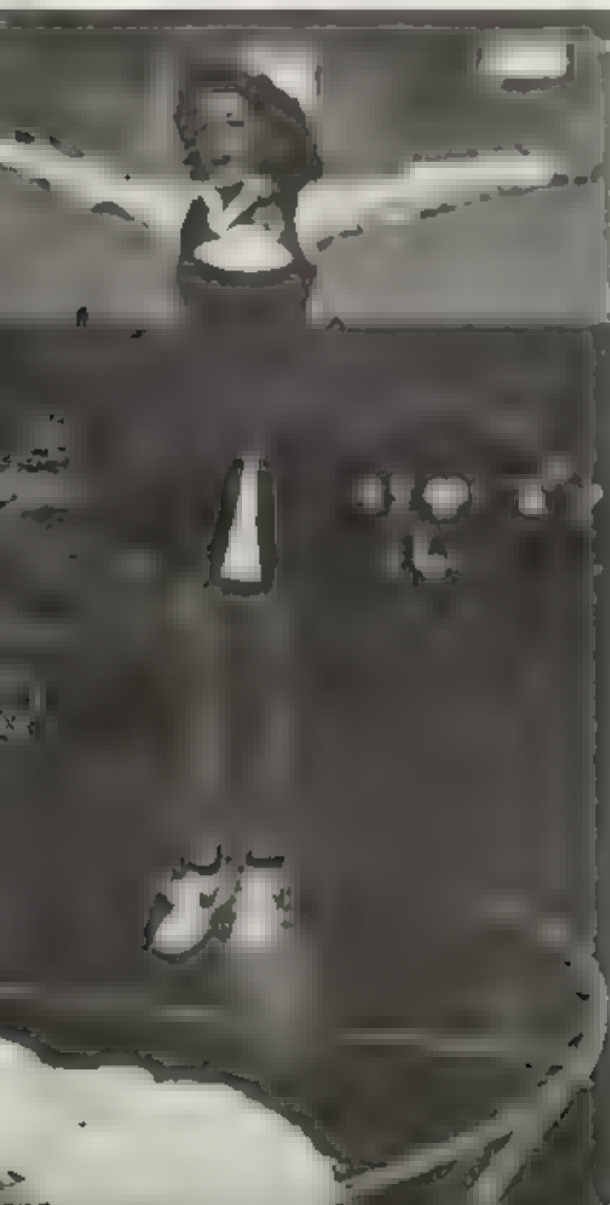

Homecoming activities started with a parade through town with the high-stepping Denton School Band leading the way. Following them were homecoming representatives which were chosen from each class and club. Each class also designed and made their own float which appeared in the parade. Last but not least, what every athlete and coach had waited for—a brand new activity bus.

The "big event" started that afternoon with a pep rally held by the cheerleaders. At that time, each class had the opportunity to present original skits showing everyone what they thought would be the outcome of the game. The Seniors, who won the dynamite stick, showed the greatest spirit, and, because of their originality, also won the skit competition. Corsages, which students had purchased from the cheerleaders earlier in the week, were given out at the end of the pep rally.

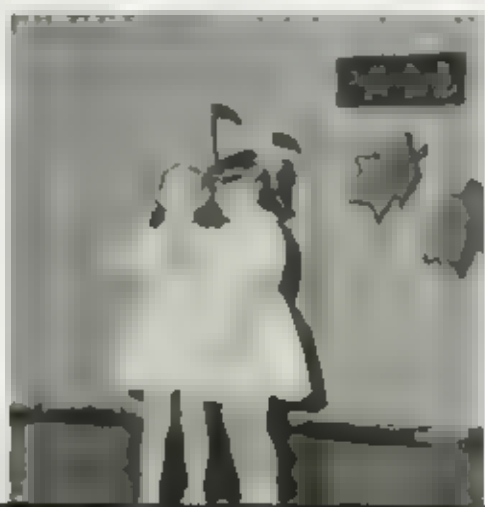

Later that evening, Denton hosted the "Cougars" of Southwestern Randolph for our homecoming football game. Even though the "Mighty Raiders" lost 21 to 8, the boys played a challenging, "never-say-die" game.

With the enthusiasm lasting all day and throughout the game, everyone was "psyched-up" and ready to "jam down" to the music of "Shuffle." The dance, which was held after the game in the high school gym, was a huge success and everyone enjoyed themselves.

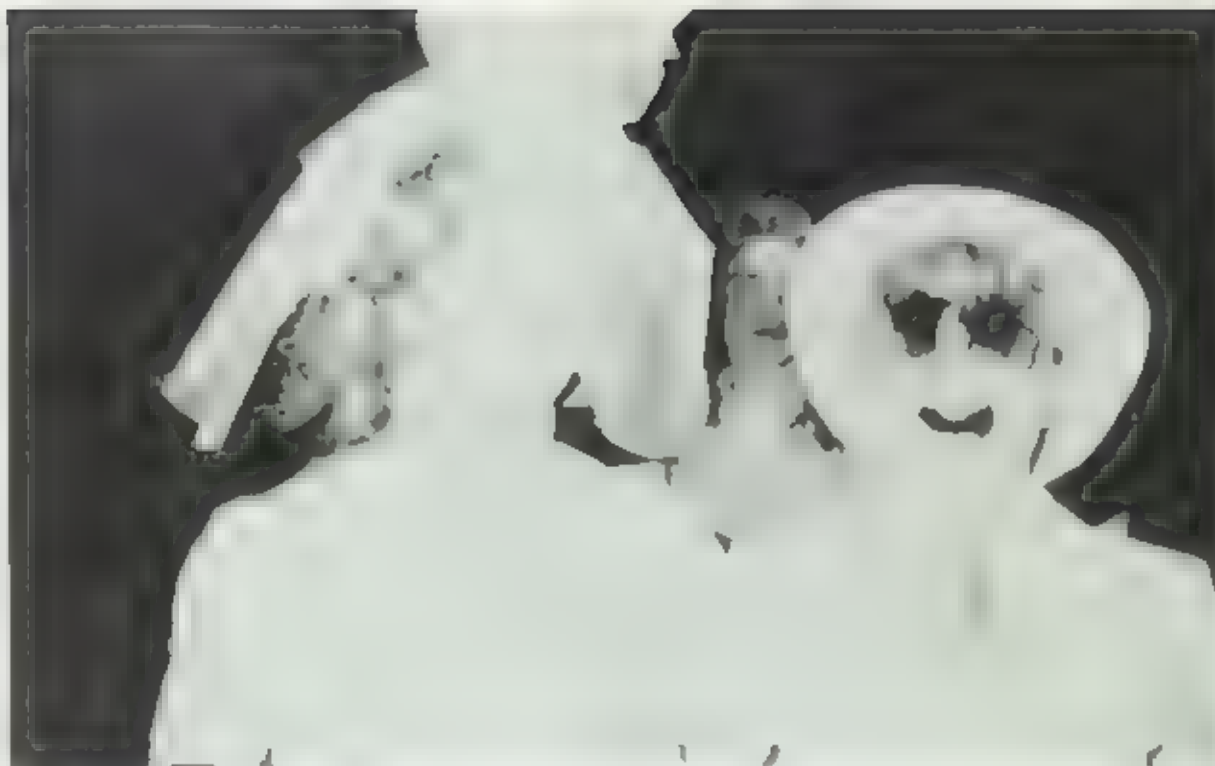

Pigskin Femininity

The Seniors and Freshmen were slightly overtaken by the Juniors and Sophomores with a score of 0-6. Jim Barefoot, escorted by Bonnie Spivey, was the Powder Puff Queen, with Maid-of-Honor, Shannon Miller, escorted by Donna Snyder.

Joy Snyder went each day to the homerooms to get representatives for the Powder Puff Court. The court practiced that day and early that night for their performance at halftime.

The Pep Club sponsored the event and Donna Snyder and Joy Snyder headed it up.

The court consisted of Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. The Senior players voted for their choice of Queen. "Boom Boom" Barefoot was the eventual winner. The Freshmen representatives were Brent Harrison, Pat Garner, and Brian Hall. The Sophomores were represented by Bernie Killian. The Juniors representatives were Jamie Benton, Jamie Harrison, and Scott Harris. The Seniors were represented by Jim Barefoot, Ronnie Suratt, and Shannon Miller.

Alecia Adams goes for it.

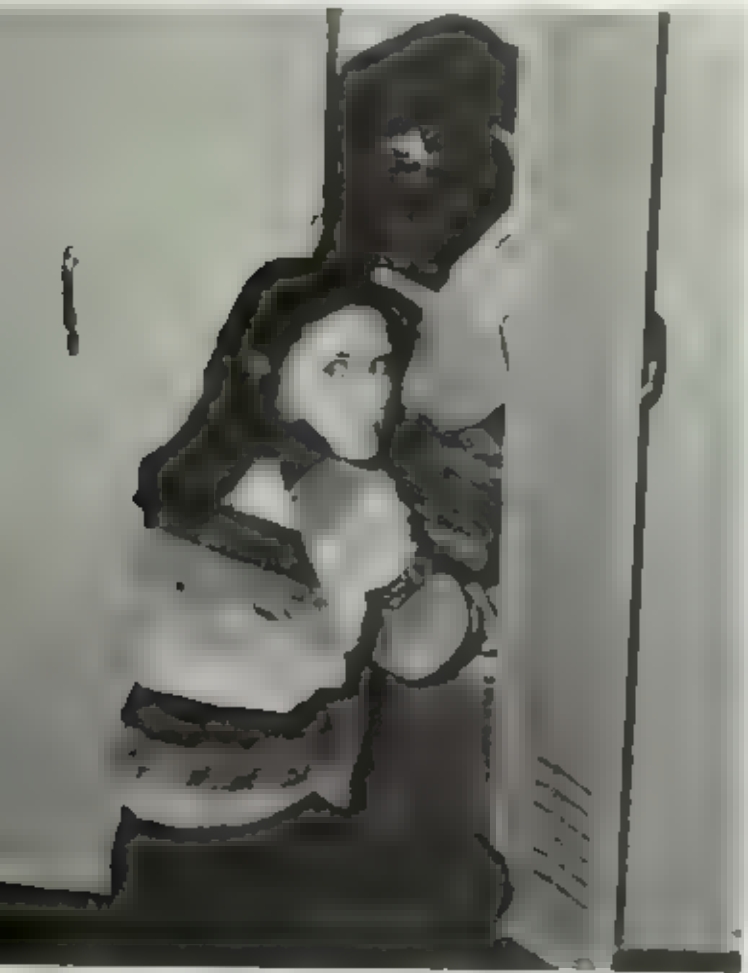

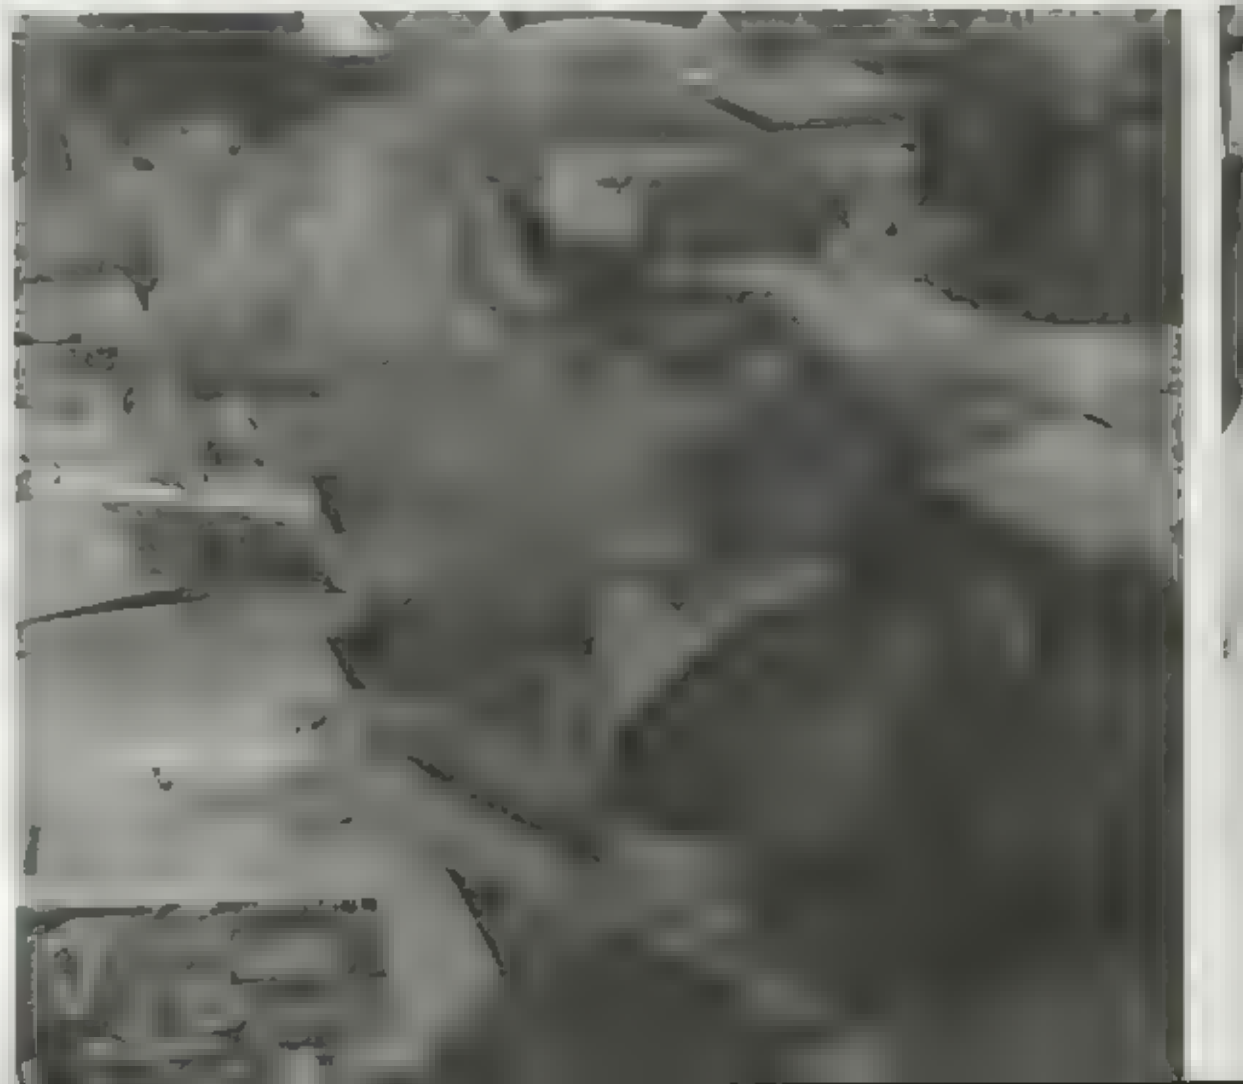

Seniors show a new warm up exercise.

Student Council and the BETA Club sponsored the Thanksgiving assembly. The guest speaker was Rev. Charles Carter of High Point.

Senior Glenn Echerd, Student Council's honey of a President, rules the hive.

Sheila Martin representing the Senior Class was crowned Christmas Queen. She was escorted by Benje Cook. Gay Gallimore, the sophomore representative, was maid-of-honor.

An enthusiastic Student Council began the school year looking forward to the completion of projects begun in the spring and eagerly planning for new challenges. Football season gave the first opportunity for President Glenn Echerd to try his leadership abilities to the fullest as the council operated the concession stand. Help came from all directions as aides, parents, sponsors, and council members struggled with keeping up a fast pace in food services. The struggle became less hectic with the addition of an electric stove generously donated by Walter Martin, Jr.

Homecoming came fast, but the council was well-prepared with gym decorations, float and skit prizes, queen coronation, and a spectacular dance headlined by "Shuffle cil as busy as bees planning the special assembly program and another great dance featuring Atlantic Stage Disco. The council also bid Principal Jerry Koontz a fond farewell by presenting him an attache case on behalf of the student body.

The new year arrived with the group still working to improve the school in every way possible. Gymnasium mats in sad need of repair were recovered and restored to use. The council was happy to complete this project and looks forward to two other projects involving our gym lobby—the installation of permanent benches as well as providing for decorative door mats at the entrance.

Among the many other projects set for completion this year are the following: re-installation of the Raider carpeting on the stage of the student center complete with foam cushions for student lounging, refinishing the school sign in front of the school, and repairing other damages to the masonry, cleaning up the commons area and making it more attractive, continuing to publicize our student of the week and honor rolls, and rounding out the year by honoring a "teacher of the year" and "student of the year."

Often the student council keeps a low profile, seeking to involve other students, clubs, and groups in projects originally conceived by the council. This is in keeping with the council goal of involving as many students and faculty members in school activities as possible. The results this year are extremely encouraging, and the council awaits next school year for even further growth.

Beta Club sponsors party for Childrens Center

The BETA Club's annual Christmas party for students of the Children's Center in Lexington, was held on Friday, December 12, in the fellowship hall of Central United Methodist Church in Denton. BETA Club members and guests sang Christmas Carols, played games, and were entertained by two local clowns, Wayne Markham and his nephew, Keith Jackson. After refreshments were served, gifts, purchased by the BETA Club, were distributed by everyone's favorite person-Santa Claus!

Neil Carroll, one of the new BETA Club inductees, reads a poem over the intercom to start the week. This is what the club members call 'Monday Motivation'.

Fourteen Juniors were inducted into the BETA Club on November 21, on the basis of four qualifications: Academics, Character, Attitude and Service. Members must maintain an overall 90 average to continue their membership in the club.

Dentonian Staff a busy group

The Dentonian Staff has been busy this year presenting the student body with an interesting newspaper. The staff consists of 23 students who, with the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Domecq, have added much variety to each issue of our school publication.

The artwork of Neil Carroll decorated each edition and other staff members have made such literary contributions as short stories, poetry, and up-to-date articles that keep everyone informed.

In order to aid finances, there has been a donation page. Many community businesses gave contributions which helped pay for the materials that are necessary to publish a newspaper. Those businesses were recognized on a special page of the paper and received a free copy of each issue.

Busy, busy, busy

The Student Council members this year have been very enthusiastic. Goals were set at the beginning of the year. They include: New basketball equipment for the gym, reupholstering the Jr. High bus, new swing seats for the playground, and track equipment for the Jr. High Track team. To achieve these goals, and boost school spirit, they planned ambitious money-making projects such as penny day, flag football game, spirit week, Christmas and spring dances, etc., The Student Council has enjoyed working together and serving the school.

Denton High's Lady Raiders made a great comeback for the 1980-81 season. With hard work and tremendous effort by the girls, Coach Wall's strategic plans paid off.

With an 8-6 record the Lady Raiders were the only team to beat defending league champions Ledford. It was Ledford's first CCC loss in two years.

Although next year's team will be losing six seniors, Coach Wall is enthusiastic toward next year's young club. The Seniors will certainly miss Coach Wall who is really dedicated to the team, and strives for the Denton Lady Raiders to be the No. 1 team in the conference.

Outstanding Senior players, Darlene Markham and Anne Carter were chosen for all conference team, with honorable mention going to Alecia Adams.

They were sleeping giants . . . but now

The Denton High School Boys Basketball team began the 1980-81 season much like any other Red Raider season, with numerous losses, from the first game of the season at Chatham Central, up to the Ledford game. But after their first Central Carolina Conference loss, a miraculous change took place—the Denton “team of old” made a complete turn-about and won three straight games on the road by very convincing margins (West Davidson 75 to 53; Southwest Randolph, 54 to 29; and East Davidson 49 to 53).

These three games marked the turning point that began a new era at Denton High School, because, again, we had a winning basketball team. That was something this school hadn’t seen “the likes of” since 1958 with Austin Cook, Norman Henderson, Johnny Griffis, Larry Grubb, and the superb coaching of Warren Hicks, who led his team to a 25-3 season, that year.

This season the Red Raiders, after a rough start, once again became a WINNING team. Could this be a new trend; a promise of “Hope For Tomorrow”? Could the Raiders rule the conference once more? Possibly, because now, the “sleeping giant” has been awakened.

DENTON HIGH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

James Carpenter

Over the Christmas holiday a big change took place in Denton High School. Santa Claus came and took our old principal, Mr. Koontz, and left us a new one, Mr. Carpenter.

The Senior class of '81 had the honor of going to Florida with Mr. Koontz as our principal for the last time. During our stay he taught Jeremy Allen "how to make alligators", and he suggested that the class ride Space Mountain—a suggestion which we followed through on. Mr. Koontz will be missed by all.

The big "switcheroo" brought Mr. James Carpenter who comes to us after being principal of Extended Day School. Although we will miss our dear "Koontzie Baby" we are looking forward to starting work on driving Mr. Carpenter crazy.

In loving memory . . .

Andree Curtis Kearns

Oct. 11, 1964-Mar. 3, 1971

Andree, a member of our class for our first two years, was killed in an automobile accident. Though, we, his fellow classmates were young, we still suffered the pain from the loss of a dear friend.

James Kip Russell

Aug. 6, 1963-June 13, 1973 (Not pictured)

Kip was the second member of our class that we lost. Although he was only with us for four years, he was a good friend to all who knew him. Through his years of primary school, he participated in sports alongside most of his best buddies.

Earl Wayne Blackwell

July 12, 1961-Apr. 22, 1978

Earl is missed not only by his family, but by the students of Denton High School. He was a very big part of our school because he loved to tease and always had a smile for everyone. We miss Earl deeply.

Kent Floyd Bivens

May 24, 1963-July 23, 1979

Each member of the Senior class feels a loss by the death of Kent Floyd Bivens. His witty attitude brightened everyone's day. He is remembered not only for his large accomplishments, but also for the small. He is always remembered for his consistent smile, his quick wit, and for giving a 110% in everything he did. But most of all, he is remembered for the love he gave to everyone he met.

Leon Jeffrey Russell

Mar. 10, 1962-Aug. 2, 1980

During this past year the Class of '81 suffered the loss of a fifth member. Leon Jeffrey Russell, affectionately called 'Heavy' by his friends, died in a freak automobile accident on Saturday night, Aug. 2, 1980. Jeff was active in all sports throughout junior high and was a member of FFA, and played Junior Varsity Basketball during his freshman year in high school. Most of 'Heavy's' friends say that they remember him most for the crazy stunts he pulled on his motorcycle. Jeff will always be remembered in our minds, but even more important, he will be remembered in our hearts.

We are sexy, we are fun, we're the class of '81

Hope and enthusiasm soar during spirit week

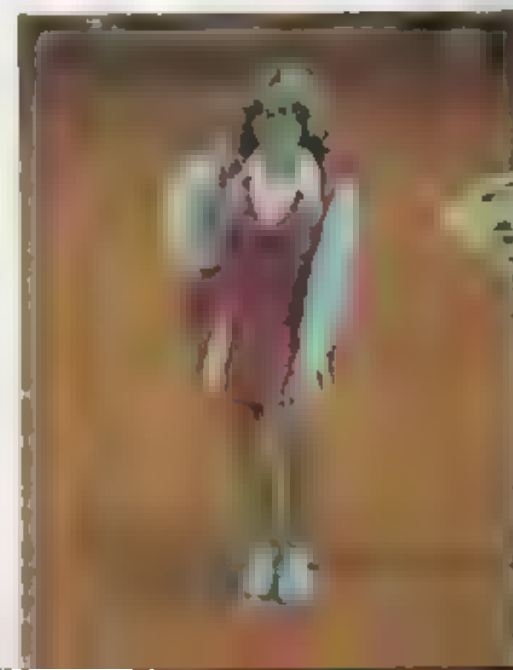

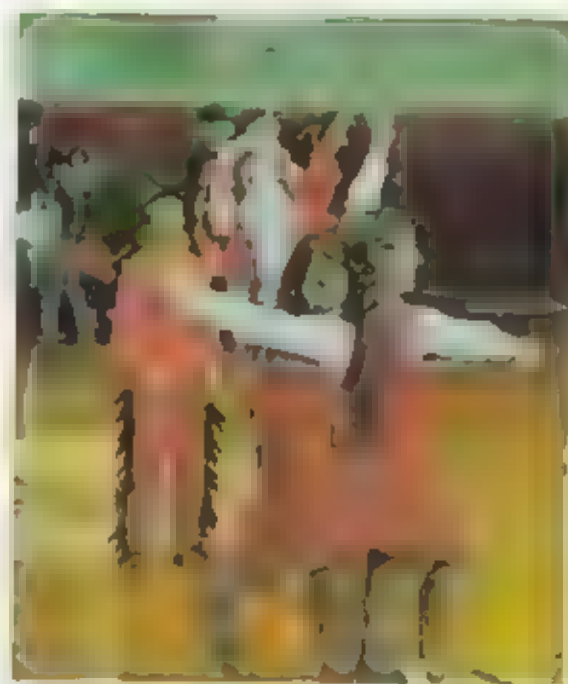

Spirit Week began with "Twin Day", continued with "T-shirt Day", "Lick-em Day", "Mourning Day", and ended with "Red and White Day". Senior enthusiasm ran wild with float-building, T-shirt signing, pep rally, parade, and football game

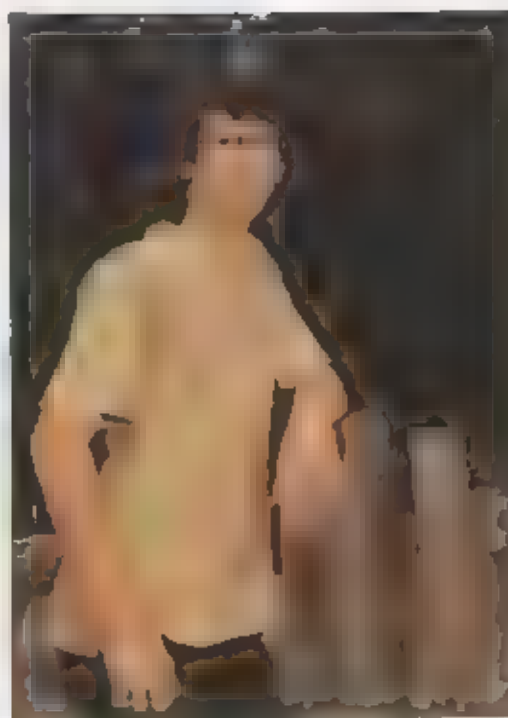

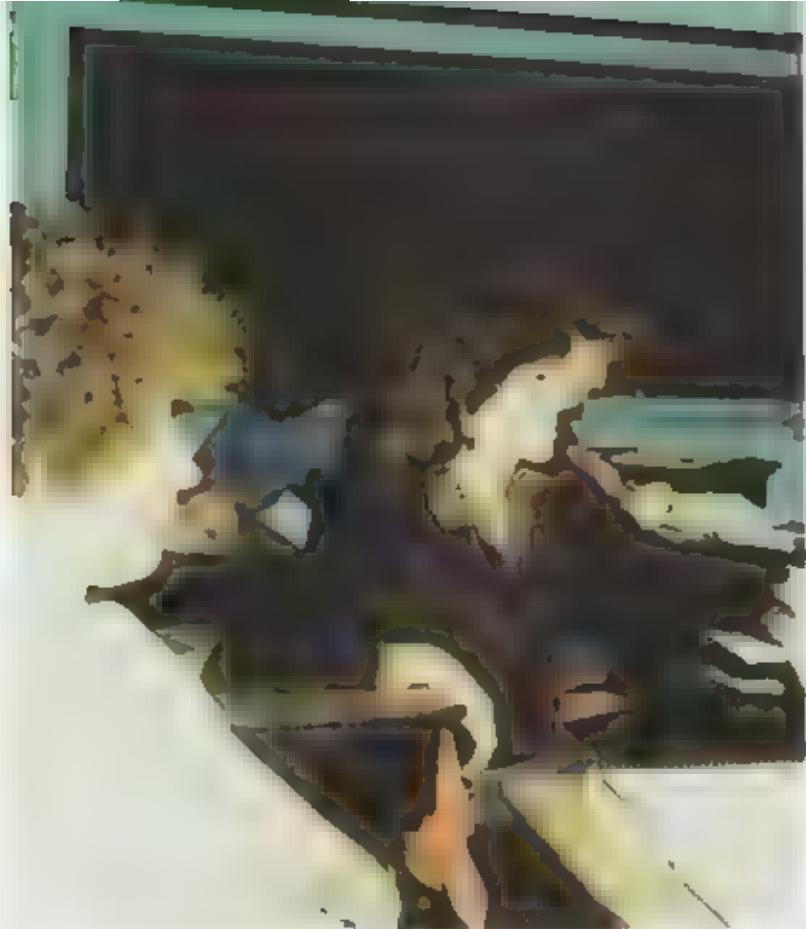

Thursday provided a homecoming parade through downtown Denton, convertibles decorated with bright smiles of thirteen homecoming beauties, and the night was ablaze with a bonfire to match the spirits of a jubilant crowd

On Friday, the Seniors really stood out at the pep rally by winning the "spirit stick" and the homecoming skit. Students and cheerleaders alike stretched their vocal chords in unison at an especially loud pep rally in preparation for what turned out to be, a teary night for the homecoming court, and a very combative football game

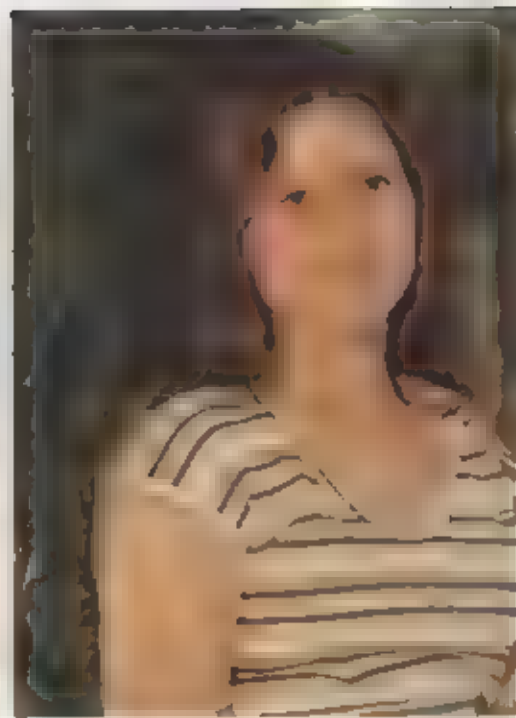

Red was our color and excitement filled the corridors that week for every student, but the thrill for Seniors was tinged with bittersweet memories of all the homecomings before. Our verdict: the last was the greatest homecoming of all Seniors: Florida or bust!

What do Disneyworld, 37 Denton High School Seniors, and Mr. Wall all have in common-They all "Mickey Mouse" around

That was the story when Denton High School prepared to leave for Florida on July 22, 1980 for the annual Senior trip. We left our family and friends to go to the dream land of Disneyworld After hours of continuous riding, we finally arrived. Even though we had very little sleep we were ready to hit the hotel pool

After relaxing, we changed clothes to go out, but the rains came and we changed our minds When it cleared we hit Disneyworld with a bang. It was a night of magic, excitement, bright lights, and Space Mountain

The next day was identical to the first except there was more time to explore the features of Disneyworld

By the time we arrived home Friday night, everyone was pooped and ready to go back

Yesterday Today Tomorrow Yesterday Today Tomorrow Yesterday Today Tomorrow Yesterday Today Tomorrow Yesterday Today Tomorrow Yesterday Today Tomorrow

With the last page of the 1981 Phoenix, the job of the Phoenix staff is completed. As many memories as possible have been included, but some have surely been omitted. My hope is that your memory of this will serve where the Phoenix leaves off.

The theme of the annual now takes on a new and deeper meaning. In the truest sense "Live For Today" now becomes very evident for only in the present can action be taken toward accomplishing a goal. "Hoping For Tomorrow" must also be a vital part of our lives because preparation for tomorrow lifts our hopes and ambitions for the future.

But "Never Forget Yesterday" is really where the importance of the 1981 Phoenix becomes evident, because our main objective is to preserve memories.

As the year draws to a close, different people remember the year in different ways. Hopefully, it will be a good memory for everyone. Thanks go to a staff, who, despite inexperience, never lacked enthusiasm, determination and good humor. Special thanks go to our advisor, Mary Ellen Cutler, who learned along with us and helped us to accomplish our seemingly impossible task.

May happiness, success, and good fortune follow you forever.

Anne Elizabeth Carter

A MESSAGE FROM THE STAFF

With a little help from our friends in the Student Council, the staff members, along with Ms. Carter, were able to attend the Colonial Journalism Workshop in Williamsburg, Virginia over the Fourth of July. This is where many of the new ideas that you see in this yearbook originated. We hope that even more staff members will have the opportunity to attend a workshop this summer so that we can learn more new things and continue to improve the PHOENIX. Thanks go to all who helped make this learning experience possible.

The PHOENIX Staff began this year, faced with numerous problems. With only three veterans, fifteen rookies, and a new captain, our squad could have been disastrous. Inexperienced.

We thought we were getting a jump on things by beginning our ad sales during the summer. However, due to computer malfunctions, many exchange-bound students who had planned to be on the staff had to rearrange their schedules in order to take the necessary courses, several of which conflicted with the fifth period Journalism Class. Despite the confusion, the first week of school found us eager to learn and ready to begin working on our annual.

But alas, we were in for a big surprise. Last year's summer supplement was unfinished because of problems with faculty change. We completed the supplement through a trial and error process and were basically pleased with the result of our efforts.

With the hope that we had learned from our mistakes on the supplement, we went on to the task of producing this year's edition of the PHOENIX. Staff members were chosen to fill various positions with Anne Carter as Editor, Evelyn Cunniff as Assistant Editor, Lonnie Snyder as Business Manager, Wendy Carter as Art Manager, and Jimmy Swearingen in charge of yearbook sales. Section editors, a first for the PHOENIX staff, were also named with Lisa Linder as Editor and Teresa Lotan, in charge of the Student Life section, the Keynote Editor, Glenn E. and Winni Bran in charge of the People section, and Bonnie Spivey Editor and Terry Dunn in charge of the Junior High and Elementary section.

The Super Senior section was done by Loneda Carr, Editor, and Joy Snyder, the Organizations section by Jimmy Swearingen, Editor, and Pam Hedrick, and the Sports section by Sara Petty, Editor, and Ben Cook. Glenn E. and Teresa Lotan were also on the Photography staff along with our Photography Editor, G. Newcom.

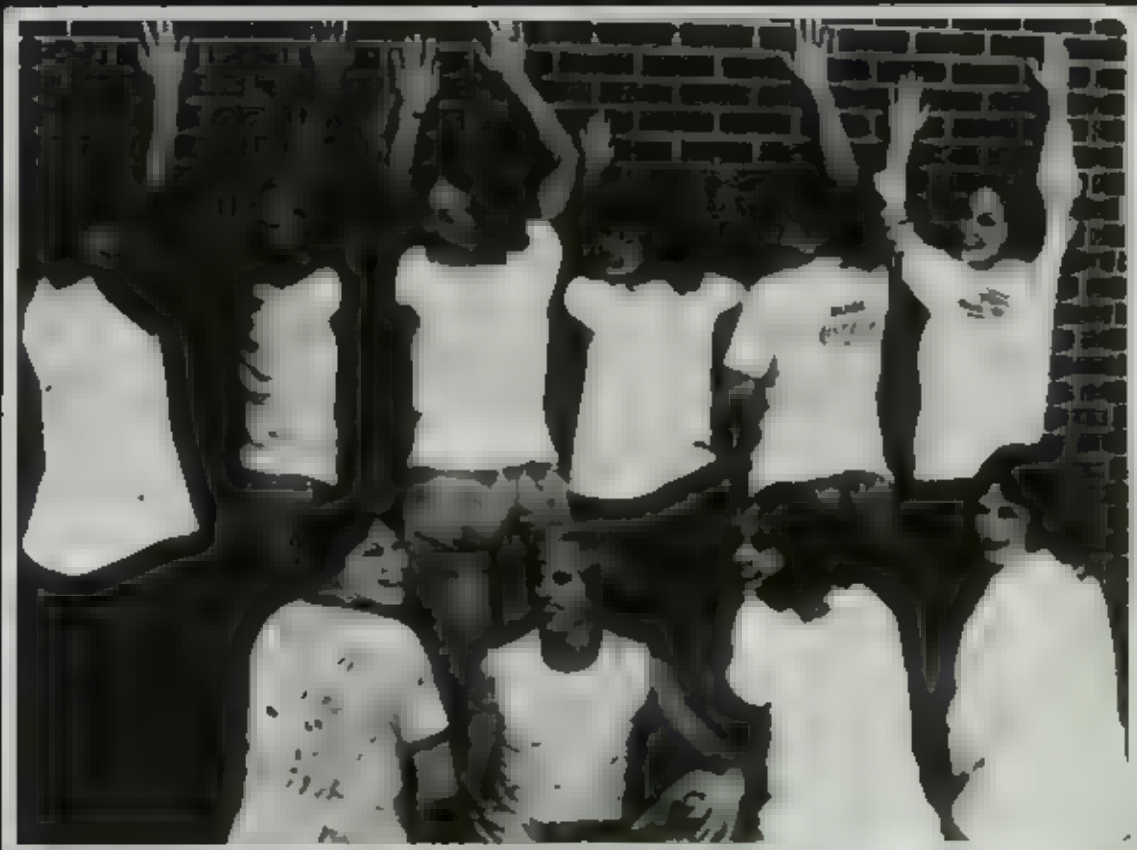

Throughout the year we managed to survive one crisis after another, ranging from lost pictures to last minute discoveries. Some taken on the evening of a deadline. Many hours were put into the completion of this annual not only during our Journalism class, but also during study halls and any other class we could manage to fit into. Many staff members worked during lunch, before school. There were even a few devoted students who worked at night and on Saturdays to meet deadlines.

But perhaps the biggest obstacle we had to overcome was the search for a new Ad sales. About 25% of the yearbook is made up of advertisements so it seemed as if we were back when we saw our first yearbook. We had support from a number of students, but just couldn't find a way to this year. We began to hope that we could raise the price of the yearbook from ten to eleven dollars, which is still less than most schools in the county charge for their annual. But we think it's worth it!

Those of you who happened to wander into the library during this period may think that the staff never did anything but clown around, but even so, we managed to meet that final deadline and now it's up to you to judge the final product. We hope you will "keep it."

Sincerely,
The Staff
